*1375. Mr. A. J. Doddameti (Dharwar North) : Will the Honourable Minister for Public Works be pleased to state —

(1) how many Engineers were working in the Public Works Department in this Province in the year 1948-49 and how many in each district;

(2) for what work they were engaged in each district;

(3) whether it is a fact that the services of some of the Engineers from the P.W.D. have been lent to the Bombay Corporation and Ahmedabad Municipality;

(4) if so, of how many?

*1375. The Honourable Mr. J. H. Mehta :

(1) In all 334 Engineers were working in the Public Works Department in this Province in the year 1948-49. It is not possible to indicate the number of Engineers against each Revenue District as the Jurisdiction of many Engineers extended over parts or whole of two or more Revenue Districts. The number of Engineers working in the Public Works Department divisions, their charges, the Revenue Districts over which their sphere of duty extended, and the works on which they were engaged are given in the statements attached.

(2) Vide reply to clause (4) above.

(3) No.

(4) Does not arise.
